

Warehouse TERRADA's Art Exhibition "My Collection" Held in Singapore Is Approved as "Anniversary Project" for The 50th Anniversary for Japan-Singapore Diplomatic Relations

Warehouse TERRADA (Shinagawa, Tokyo / President and CEO: Yoshihisa Nakano) is pleased to announce that our art exhibition held in Singapore "My Collection: The Art Collections of Japanese and Singaporean Private Collectors (hereinafter My Collection)" has been approved as "Anniversary Project" for the 50th anniversary for Japan-Singapore diplomatic relations.

"My Collection" featured artworks by Japanese artists owned by Singaporean collectors, and artworks by Singaporean artists owned by Japanese collectors. Being held to commemorate the 50 years of diplomatic relationship between Japan and Singapore, the exhibition aimed to deepen and develop the further relationship on art and culture between the two countries.

【About Anniversary Project for the 50th Anniversary for Japan-Singapore Diplomatic Relations】

To celebrate the 50th anniversary for Japan-Singapore diplomatic relations in 2016, the applied projects which are going to be held within the year 2016 in Singapore, and satisfy the approval criteria are selected by the 50th Anniversary of Singapore-Japan Diplomatic Relations Executive Committee. The criteria includes that the project is promotive for further relationship, mutual understanding, strengthening friendship between the two countries, and introducing Japanese culture to Singapore. Among them, the projects which could have a positive influence to the next generation, and which could strengthen the ties not only Singapore-Japan but also ASEAN-Japan are highly welcomed for "Anniversary Project."
