Warehouse TERRADA is participating “Asian Art Award 2018 supported by Warehouse TERRADA” (organized by Art Tokyo Association) as a special sponsor, and it was announced that the grand prize was awarded to Takehito Koganezawa, and the special prize was to AKI INOMATA. The exhibition of the four award finalists including two winners is being held on the fourth floor of TERRADA ART COMPLEX in Tennoz, Tokyo until March 18th (Sun.). The finalists are AKI INOMATA, Takehito Koganezawa, Motohiro Tomii, and Masahiro Wada.

The award was established to support young artists to be more active from Asia to the world. The finalists selection jury, consisting of five young curators, selected four finalists among 20 artists in Japan, China, Thailand, and other Asian countries. The winners were announced after the artworks were examined by the judges including Yuji Akimoto, Yuko Hasegawa, Joyce Toh, You Yang and Bao Yifeng during the finalists exhibition.

With great expectations, the grand prize winner, Takehito Koganezawa will be awarded with prize, a studio space (TAC ART STUDIO on the second floor of TERRADA ART COMPLEX), and opportunities to have solo exhibition in Shanghai (planned in November 2018) and present an artwork in ART FAIR TOKYO 2019.
