

Warehouse TERRADA Launches New Service “BAZART” for Art Rental and Sales

Warehouse TERRADA launched a new art sharing service “BAZART” (<https://bazart.tokyo/>) to support the rental and sales of artwork globally.

With this service, users can select their favorite artwork from 6,000 original pieces and rent or purchase them to suit their mood. “BAZART” offers users opportunities to enjoy a great number of new artworks every time they visit the website.

[About BAZART] <https://bazart.tokyo/>

- Around 6,000 original artworks registered (as of July 2017). New artwork is being registered daily.
- Artwork is searchable by price or style. Also, exhibitions curated by notable people are held regularly to offer a different search experience and unexpected encounters.
- Artwork can be rented (1,300 yen per month / available in Japan / for up to six months) or purchased (available both in Japan and abroad).

* “BAZART” was renewed and taken over from “ART STAND,” a service by ART STAND Co., Ltd.

- Two plans are available; one is the “Standard Plan” to upload photographs of artwork without storing the artwork, and the other is the “Storage Plan” to store the artwork in our storage.
- BAZART takes care of processes from attracting customers to taking orders, managing payments, packing and shipping artworks.

[About Warehouse TERRADA]

Since the foundation in 1950, Warehouse TERRADA has been cultivating better storage techniques and making proactive action on the capital investment in order to store and preserve items under the best environment. Expanding our business beyond the traditional warehousing, we are currently pursuing the preservation and restoration technique to raise the value of stored items and pass it on to the next generations. We are also developing a business to create a hub to output the new culture by making a full use of our knowledge as a professional in space creation. Our storage technologies for items that require high expertise such as artworks, audio-visual media, and wines have been receiving a great reputation by each industry.
